

Mr. Jayant Umranikar

Jayant Umranikar joined IPS in 1973. He was deputed to Cabinet Secretariat and later to Foreign Service. He represented India in UN offices in Vienna, IAEA, UNODC, the 10th UN Crime Conference and Conference on Transnational Organised Crime at Palermo (Italy). He also participated in international negotiations, including the Convention on Transnational Organised Crime. He returned to Maharashtra in 2001 and served as Police Commissioner in Nagpur and Pune. Shri Jayant Umranikar headed Anti Naxalite Operations, State CID. He retired in Dec 2009 as DGP (Spl Ops). Decorated with Police Medal and President's Medal for Distinguished Services he is also felicitated by Lions, Rotary and Top Management Consortium, Pune for Outstanding Public Service. He received the 'Pride of Fergusson College' award in 2009. He has authored many books and articles. His book 'Police Reforms in India' was released by Union HM, Chidambaram at the Annual DGP Conference in New Delhi in 2009.